Article I Name

The name of this organization shall be the Zonta Club of Oswego. It shall exist only as a chartered club of Zonta International.

Article II Objectives

The objects of this club and of Zonta International are:

- (a) To improve the legal, political, economic, educational, health and professional status of women at the global and local level through service and advocacy.
- (b) To work for the advancement of understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of members.
- (c) To promote justice and universal respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms.
- (d) To be united internationally to foster high ethical standards, to implement service programs, and to provide mutual support and fellowship for members who serve their communities, their nations, and the world.

Article III Policy

SECTION 1. Nonpartisan and Nonsectarian. This club shall be nonpartisan and nonsectarian.

SECTION 2. Principles and Public Issues. This club may express itself about, and become involved in principles and public issues having a bearing on its Objects, following the guidelines established by the Zonta International Board of Directors.

Article IV Membership

SECTION 1. Categories. The membership of this club shall have a membership composition that is inclusive and diverse.

- (a) Members shall be drawn from individuals with experience in a recognized business or profession who are willing to actively support the objectives of Zonta International.
- (b) The club may retain as a member or may elect to its membership, without any classification requirement and without additional initiation fee, a Past International President.
- (c) Honorary Members shall be persons who have distinguished themselves by some unusual service other than their service to Zonta. An Honorary Member shall be entitled to all membership privileges of the club except those of: (1) holding an elective office or directorship; (2) making motions and voting; or (3) representing the club as a delegate or alternate. The club board shall determine the specific tenure of any honorary membership. An Honorary Member shall be exempt from the payment of dues, and the club shall pay the international, district and area (if applicable) dues of any Honorary Member the club elects.

SECTION 2. Election to Membership.

- (a) All candidates for membership who meet the requirements for membership in these (b) bylaws shall be considered.
- (b) The Club Membership Committee shall review all proposals for membership, whether by application or invitation, and present the names of the candidates to the Club Board with its recommendations. Approval for membership is made by the Club Board unless the Club Bylaws provide otherwise. If approved by a majority vote of Board members present by a ballot of the Board, the Membership chair shall extend a written invitation to the person accepted to become a member and notify the club members. The Membership chair shall inform the club membership of the candidates for club membership before invitation to become a member is extended.

SECTION 3. Transfer Privileges. A member of another Zonta club who moves to the geographical location of the Zonta Club of Oswego may transfer membership to that club, provided the required dues have been paid.

SECTION 4. Duration of Membership. Membership shall be for life except as otherwise provided in these bylaws and Rules of Procedure of Zonta International.

Article V Meetings of the Club

SECTION 1. Regular Meetings. Regular dinner meetings shall be held each month. An annual calendar will be published and distributed to the membership. Clubs can hold meetings with electronic communication.

SECTION 2. Annual Meeting. The meeting in May shall be known as the Annual Meeting. The annual meeting shall be for the purpose of receiving reports of the activities of the club from the President and the club committee chairs, the installation of Officers (President Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer), and Directors, and for any other business that may arise. Election of officers and directors for the following year will be conducted at the April meeting, which is then called the Election Meeting.

SECTION 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called by the President and shall be called upon the written request of five (5) members of the club. At least ten (10) days written notice of a special meeting shall be given. The business to be transacted at a special meeting shall be limited to that mentioned in the meeting notice.

SECTION 4. Quorum. Quorum (minimum number of members necessary to conduct business) shall be determined by vote of the club provided that no less than one-fourth (1/4) of the members shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the club.

Article VI Club Board

SECTION 1. How constituted. Elected officers and directors of the club constitute the club board.

SECTION 2. Duties and Powers of the Board. The Board shall have general supervision of the affairs of the club between meetings of the club provided that none of its acts shall conflict with action taken by the club. It may act upon routine questions in carrying out established policies, but shall not determine policy, authorize projects and donations or adopt the budget. It may make recommendations to the club, receive such reports of Committees as it may find necessary and perform such duties as are required by these Bylaws and by the Bylaws and Rules of Procedure of Zonta International. The Zonta Club Manual shall serve as a guideline for club operations.

SECTION 3. Meetings of the Board. The board shall hold regular monthly meetings unless otherwise ordered by the board. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum. The club board may transact its business with electronic communication.

Article VII Officers and Directors

SECTION 1. Officers and Directors. The officers of the club and its directors shall be a president, a vice president, secretary, and a treasurer or dual secretary/treasurer. There shall be one or more directors.

SECTION 2. The immediate past president shall serve as a non-voting member of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. Prerequisites: To be eligible for the office of president, a member must have served on the club board for at least one (1) year, except in the case of a newly chartered club.

SECTION 4. Election. At the election meeting in April, officers and directors shall be elected by ballot unless there is but one (1) nominee for the office, in which case a voice vote may be taken. A majority vote of those present and voting shall be required to elect. At the option of the Club, balloting may be done by mail. A plurality vote of the club membership shall be required to elect.

SECTION 5. Terms of Office. The officers and directors shall take office 1 June. Officers shall hold office for two years or until their successors are elected and take office. Directors shall hold office for two years or until their successors are elected and take office. With the exception of the secretary and treasurer, who shall serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms, no officer or director shall be eligible to serve more than one (1) consecutive term in the same office.

If an officer or Director is elected to fill an unexpired term, that Officer or Director shall serve the remainder of the two-year term. A member who has served more than half a term (one year) in any office shall be deemed to have served a full term.

SECTION 6. Resignations. A resignation from the board shall be sent to the president who shall refer it to the board for action.

SECTION 7. Removal from Office. A club officer or director may be removed by the club members for cause upon grounds permitted for removal at the international level (Article VII, Section 11). Cause shall include but not be limited to failure, without excuse, to attend meetings; failure to perform the duties of the position; or acting in such a way to injure the good name of Zonta or hamper its work. A complaint in writing against an officer or director for such behavior shall be referred by the club board to a committee of club members elected by the members for investigation. The procedure is specified in a policy found on Zonta International, My Zonta Page for Policies and Guidelines.

SECTION 8. Vacancies. In case of vacancy in the office of president, the vice president shall become president. Vacancies in other offices shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 9. Duties of Officers. The officers of the club shall perform the duties prescribed by the club, by these Bylaws, and by the Bylaws of Zonta International.

- (a) President. The president shall preside at all meetings of the club and of the club board and shall be the chief executive officer of the club, and may countersign all payment orders and checks drawn by the treasurer. Subject to approval by the board, the president shall appoint the chairs of all standing committees and other committees except the Nominating Committee and shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.
- (b) Vice President. In the absence or inability of the president, the vice president shall perform the duties of president. The vice president may serve as a chair of a Committee and may be assigned other duties by the club board.
- (c) Secretary. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the meetings of the club and of the board, conduct correspondence not specifically assigned to other officers or committees, and perform other duties as assigned by the board.
- (d) Treasurer. The treasurer shall be responsible for the funds of the club. The treasurer shall disburse these funds by check or other commonly used means of payment, as directed in accordance with the approved budget. The treasurer shall make periodic reports to the board and the club. Within [forty-five] days of the close of the fiscal year, all accounts shall be examined by a person independent of the board. No later than [forty-five] days after the term of office ends, the treasurer shall turn all records over to the successor.

Article VIII

Nominating Committee

SECTION 1. Appointment. In January, the President, after consultation with the Board, shall appoint a Nominating Committee of three (3) members and announce the names of the Nominating Committee to the membership at the January membership meeting.

SECTION 2. Duties. It shall be the duty of the Nominating Committee to nominate one (1) or more members for each office or directorship to be filled at the annual election meeting in April, and at club option, to nominate at least three members for the next term's Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee will inform the membership of offices to be filled and invite nominations from members interested in serving. No name shall be presented unless the nominee has consented to serve if elected.

SECTION 3. Report of the Committee. The Nominating Committee shall report the slate of officers and directors at the (March) business meeting prior to the Election Meeting (April) unless otherwise directed by the club. Additional nominations may be made from the floor, provided the consent of the nominee has been obtained.

SECTION 4. Vacancies. Vacancies in the Nominating Committee shall be filled by the Board.

Article IX Committees

SECTION 1. Committees. Committees shall be authorized by the club board. Guidelines for club committees are in the Zonta Club Manual.

SECTION 2. Appointment. Except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws, the club president shall appoint Committee Chairs, subject to approval by the club board.

SECTION 3. Reports. Committees shall report regularly to the club board and to the club.

Article X Fees and Dues

SECTION 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of this club shall be from 1 June to 31 May, inclusive.

SECTION 2. Initiation and Reinstatement Fees. The initiation fee shall be that established by Zonta International and shall be paid to Zonta International as a new member fee, upon acceptance of invitation to membership. A former member of this club or of another Zonta club who is re-elected to membership in accordance with requirements of Article IV shall be subject to a reinstatement fee as established by Zonta International and which shall be paid to Zonta International.

SECTION 3. Annual Dues. The annual dues of a club member shall be established by the club.

- (a) Any change in the amount of annual dues shall be approved by a two-thirds majority of the club members voting.
- (b) These dues shall be payable on or before 1 April.
- (c) From these dues the club shall pay the annual dues and fees of members to Zonta International and to the District.

Article XI Suspension or Expulsion

Any member of the club who has acted in a way to injure the good name of Zonta or to hamper its work may be expelled by the club members. A complaint in writing against a member for such behavior may be made to the club board. The board shall refer the complaint to a committee appointed by the club board for investigation (or a committee elected by the club if the complaint is against a club officer per Article VII, Section 6 of these bylaws. Neither the member concerned nor the complainant shall be appointed to the committee. The procedure is specified in a policy found on Zonta International, My Zonta Page for Policies and Guidelines.

Article XII Financial Oversight

The club board shall cause the club financial records to be examined by a person independent of the board. For purposes of the examination, the books shall be closed at the end of the fiscal year.

Article XIII Seal, Colors, Name and Emblem

SECTION 1. Seal. The corporate seal of Zonta International, with the addition of the name of the club shall be the seal of this club.

SECTION 2. Colors and Emblem. The official colors and emblem of this club shall be those of Zonta International.

Article XIV Corporate Property

All property, real, personal or mixed, legal or equitable, acquired by this Zonta club by grant, purchase, gift, bequest or devise, shall be its corporate property.

Article XV Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern this club in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with the club Bylaws or Rules of Procedure, the Zonta International Bylaws or Rules of Procedure, or the Rules of Procedure of the District in which the club resides.

Article XVI Amendment to the Bylaws

These Bylaws may be adopted or amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the club members present and voting at any regular meeting or special meeting called for the purpose, provided that such amendment is not inconsistent with the Bylaws or Rules of Procedure of Zonta International and further provided that notice of such proposed amendment shall have been given to each member at least ten (10) days before the meeting.
